

FROM ALLISON

Some farmers are about done plating cotton and some are plowing corn. Mr. Waddell is busy preparing for the closing day exercises of the school. Miss Joann Haynes came in from Durant Saturday evening to spend the Sabbath at home. Saturday night, May 4, we are to have a pie supper here for the benefit of the Red Cross. Everyone is invited to come and bring a pie. All are invited. Chas. P. Abbott made an interesting address here Friday night in the interest of the Third Liberty Loan. We believe quite a number bought bonds. It is with regret that we report that Mrs. Pierce is again worse and not able to be up. Mrs. Bertha Kebab has been on the sunny list for some days. We had a good singing here last Sunday night. Among the visitors who sang with us were Mr. and Mrs. Eschel Savage of New Allison and Mrs. Jess Morgan of Yarnaby. Glad you came and hope to see you here again. Mrs. Maggie Bellows of Durant, and children Shirley and Johnnie spent last week with her mother, Mrs. John Beaulin. Charles Mattingly was here Monday buying some hogs from Richard Campbell. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnson went to Durant Tuesday to market some hogs. The W. O. W. held their usual meeting Tuesday night, introducing a new member, Dixon Cochran. It is said that Owen Swain will leave May 8 to join the U. S. service. The best wishes of the community go with the young man.

FROM ARMSTRONG

Fred Myers, lately of Okmulgee, where he was employed as field rauper in the oil fields for the Texas Oil and Pipe Line Company of Oklahoma, has recently accepted a position as engineer for the same company at the Armstrong station, succeeding Art Mason. Bob Street has recently moved his family into our midst. Karl Kohler of Durant came out to Armstrong Saturday to time the school house piano. The following Armstrong citizens were visitors in the county seat last Saturday: Rob Street, R. P. Thompson, W. H. Curtis, Sylvia and Gerald Howell, P. Curtis, W. S. Davidson, Ed Culver, G. A. Brown, Charley Locke, Charles Harper, M. D. Greenburg, C. K. McDonald, Albert Fryer, J. W. Garrett, Miss Gladys Vawter, Flora Houser, Ruby Herron. Armstrong is over the top in her Liberty Loan subscription quota with about $1,700 of this $1,100 was subscribed by the local employees of the Texas Oil and Pipe Line Company. They will be here to spend a while, and it is likely will make Bokchito their permanent home. Mr. Story still runs his paper at Junction City, but has his office in good hands. C. W. Edens, who has been suffering from sickness for some time, was carried to Vinita last Wednesday, where he will be treated. It is the hope of his many friends that he will soon recover. Mrs. H. N. Wilson and little Homer are spending the week with relatives in Durant. Miss Othena Gardner, who attends the Presbyterian College at Durant, spent Monday with relatives here. Mrs. T. W. Anderson and daughter, Miss Eula, were guests of relatives and friends in Durant Tuesday. Walton Ryle, who is stationed at Camp Bowie, Fort Worth, was here Saturday and Sunday visiting with friends. A large number of Bokchito people attended the closing exercises of the Impson Prairie school on Friday night. It was highly appreciated by all who were present. Mrs. Senter is quite sick this week and it is the wish of her many friends that she will soon recover. Mrs. Emma Puckett, mother of Mrs. L. B. Norman, who is on a visit here, is very sick this week. Mrs. A. R. Jones and children motored to Durant Tuesday afternoon.

FROM PLATTER

A patriotic meeting was held here Thursday evening of last week in behalf of the Third Liberty Loan. D. S. MacDonald of Durant delivered a good talk and it was appreciated by the patriots of this community. The actual subscriptions taken for bonds that evening were $1,700. The committee has been busy this week, and the total amount raised to date is between $8,000 and $9,000. Mr. Walden's daughter, from Missouri, was here on a short visit the latter part of last week. Roy Head filled his regular appointment here Sunday. The ten-months old infant of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Crisp died Wednesday night. Interment was made in the Colbert cemetery Thursday at ten o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Standler, and family visited their daughter, Mrs. Love, last Saturday and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Post visited here Sunday afternoon. Ethel Williams spent the week-end at home. J. A. Rainolds was a business visitor to Durant Saturday. Miss Bowden Raines was in Durant last week taking examinations at the Colera and Platter schools. Baseball teams played here Monday afternoon, resulting in a score of 11 to 1 in favor of Colera.

Platter Correspondent Corrected.

Your correspondent from Platter was mistaken when he said "Rev. Ogle of Durant failed to put in an appearance Tuesday night on account of the unfavorable weather." It was the good people of Platter who failed to put in an appearance, as we were there in time for the service and the church was in darkness. Three of us drove out from Durant. Mr. Fred Lowry, Mr. A. Rainold, and myself. But only one criticism of the community, and it was a very unfavorable one, but a correction of the mistake that was published. J. T. OGLE.

FROM SILO

Houston Heath and family of Durant, accompanied by Miss Beulah Beatty, spent Sunday with J. R. Heath and family. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith were in Durant shopping Thursday. BOKCHITO HAS A DAY OF MUCH CELEBRATION

Business and School Stopped Short for Flag-Raising Day.—Gabe Parker Made Address. Thursday was a gala day in the history of Bokchito, for on that day, the occasion of raising the town's Honor Flag, gained through raising its Liberty Bond quota, schools stopped, business stopped, all work stopped, and the people of the town and vicinity celebrated, and celebrated big. The Bokchito schools, Armstrong Academy, and people from all over, joined in a big parade, when ample music was at hand, and following which Gabe Parker, of the Muskogee Indian offices, a citizen of Bokchito, made a stirring patriotic address which brought cheer after cheer from the throats of the many who heard him.
